

Australian Shepherds

Sizes Toy, Mini and Standard

MERLE (BLUE OR RED)

$1200

Merle puppies typically come in either blue merle or red (brown/chocolate) Merle. They are very flashy with a light base coat and darker spots. Blue eyes are possible with Merles on a more regular basis.

BLUE EYED NON-MERLE

$1000-$1200

Blue eyes are not easy to find on non-merle coats but we more often are having them in our litters. They are a show stopper for sure!

TRICOLOR/BICOLOR

$800-$1000

Tricolor is a solid coated dog either black or red with tan points (tan eyebrows, cheeks, on the legs) and white markings. Bicolors are either Black (or) Red and white OR Black/Red with tan points.

F1 Aussiedoodles

First generation pairing Australian Shepherd to Poodle. Sizes Toy, Mini, Medium, and Standard

MERLE (BLUE OR BROWN)

$1500-$1800

Merle puppies typically come in either blue merle or brown (red/chocolate) Merle. They are very flashy with a light base coat and darker spots. Blue eyes are possible with Merles on a more regular basis.

BLUE EYED NON-MERLE

$1500-$1800

Blue eyes are not easy to find on non-merle coats, but we more often are having them in our litters. They are a showstopper for sure!

TRICOLOR/BICOLOR & SOLIDS

$1000-$1200

Tricolor is a solid coated dog either black or brown with tan points (tan eyebrows, cheeks, on the legs) and white markings. Bicolors are either Black/brown and white

OR phantom meaning black/brown with tan points. And of course, solids meaning solid black or brown.

---

F1b OR Multigenerational Aussiedoodles

F1b meaning in most cases 3/4 Poodle 1/4 Australian Shepherd and Multigenerational is any cross after that would be best for those with more severe allergies. Sizes Toy, Mini, Medium, and Standard

MERLE (BLUE OR BROWN)

$1500-$2000

Merle puppies typically come in either blue merle or brown (red/chocolate) Merle. They are very flashy with a light base coat and darker spots. Blue eyes are possible with Merles on a more regular basis.

BLUE EYED NON-MERLE

$1500-$2000

Blue eyes are not easy to find on non-merle coats, but we more often are having them in our litters. They are a showstopper for sure!

TRICOLOR/BICOLOR & SOLIDS

$1200-$1500

Tricolor is a solid coated dog either black or brown with tan points (tan eyebrows, cheeks, on the legs) and white markings. Bicolors are either Black/brown and white OR phantom meaning black/brown with tan points. And of course, solids meaning solid black or brown.

Poodles

Poodles would be best for those with severe allergies. Sizes Toy, Mini, Moyen, and Standard

MERLE (BLUE OR BROWN)

$2000-$2500

Merle puppies typically come in either blue merle or brown (red/chocolate) Merle. They are very flashy with a light base coat and darker spots. Blue eyes are possible with Merles on a more regular basis.

TRICOLOR/BICOLOR (TUXEDO OR PARTI) & SOLIDS

$1000-$2000

Tricolor is a solid coated dog with black (or) brown with tan points (tan eyebrows, cheeks, on the legs) and white markings. Bicolors/Tuxedos and Partis are ANY solid color (black, red, brown, silver, sable, cream etc.) with varying amounts of white OR phantom meaning black/brown with tan points. And of course, solids meaning one coat color throughout.

**Please note ALL our puppies are sold as PET ONLY. This means we require a SPAY/NEUTER CONTRACT. Occasionally we will offer breeding rights to select homes at an additional cost